

Fort Frances High School's Hockey Canada Skills Academy

Registration Form

Fort Frances High School is pleased to offer the Hockey Canada Skills Academy for Intermediate students this fall. The Fort Frances High School Hockey Canada Skills Academy is accredited by Hockey Canada. The framework of the program is consistent with the standards for development set by Hockey Canada. As well, it is in full compliance with the Ministry of Education provincial learning outcomes for physical education.

Who can apply for the program?

Any Grade 7 or 8 student enrolled at Fort Frances High School for September 2019 can apply. For those students who do not currently attend Fort Frances High School or one of its feeder schools, parents must complete a school registration form for September 2019 along with the Hockey Academy application form.

Applications will be accepted on a first-come, first-serve basis. Final decisions will ultimately reside with the school principal.
